Imarni for persevering with drumming which allowed her to achieve the rhythm in Wooden Roots.

4H - Amarah for challenging herself more frequently in Maths recently.

Macie has impressed us with her improved concentration in lessons.

4L- Otto for being kind and thoughtful

Matilde for a positive attitude towards her learning.

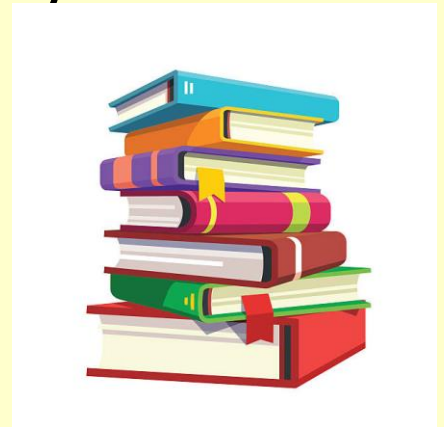

Celebrating Reading

Well done to all of our new reading Word Millionaires!

Since Christmas, 11 more children have read 1 million words.

13 children have also moved up to the next level on the millionaire display in the library.

What an achievement!
Your prizes are on their way.

Year 5 are celebrating...

5G - Sofija and Isaac Sc for sharing brilliant ideas with their groups during our writing lesson.

5M - Tyler & Ronnie for an improved effort with their reading.

5HB- Aureja for the quality of her writing in afternoon lessons. Recently in our Science and our History lessons, she has ensured the quality of writing matches the quality of writing she produces in English lessons. Well done for putting so much effort in.

Year 6 are celebrating...

6T - Tymon & Temmy for fantastic and enthusiastic participation in Dance with Sam. Mrs Millson was very impressed. Well done!

Well done to all of Year 6. You have worked hard all year long. You have an important week coming up and we wish you all the best. Remember it is important to relax this weekend and spend time doing things you enjoy with people you love.
