

Year 5 – Home-learning Bingo!

Please ensure your compulsory TTRS and reading homework is completed each week.

If you are hungry for more, have a go at some of the optional home learning activities below. There are a mix of different tasks to choose from which link to different areas of our curriculum.

If you complete a row or a column or a full house (all activities), ask your parent/carer to let your teacher know via your reading diary. In addition, please bring in and share any pictures/ work or photos with your class.
