Mya for trying really hard in science this week and participating in class discussions.

Book in a jar Competition

WOW! We were very impressed with all of the competition entries. Throughout the day the whole school community enjoyed exploring and guessing the books.

We also had some wonderful entries from the staff.

The School Council did a fantastic job of voting for the winners...

Year 5 are celebrating...

5s - Trey for great improvement in Maths especially fractions.

5G - Zak for reaching 75% of his reading target already. Isaac Skinner for persevering in maths even when he found the concept difficult.

5HB- Zak for showing great understanding in our earth and space lessons this week and for so positively sharing his thinking. Thank you to Daisy for always being so helpful around the class, it is really appreciated!

5M - Rafael for working really hard in all areas. Kayla for contributing well in reading and writing lessons.

Year 6 are celebrating...

6B - Charlie F and Charlie K for their gymnastics sequence in PE this week. They both challenged themselves and used all the skills we have been learning about. Elsie for trying extremely hard in all our lessons this week and for setting a great example to others.

6S - Tymon and Grace for huge improvement with their writing and handwriting.

6J - James for showing care and thoughtfulness in art and creativity in his writing.

6T Riley W has shown maturity, great understanding and a fantastic work ethic in art over the last two weeks.

6RL Heera for his fantastic progress in arithmetic - his next challenge is to conquer the reasoning!

Perfect Presentation!

Scarlett in 3P always presents her work with care but I was particularly impressed with the presentation of her non chronological report in English last Friday.

Oscar in 5G always thinks carefully about the presentation of his work - beautiful handwriting, titles and dates underlined. I never need to remind him :)

Lili in 5HB consistently takes care and pride in her presentation in all of her lessons.

Kiyana in 6RL whose maths is always beautifully presented with one number in each box.
