Year 5 are celebrating...

5G - Isaac Sc for recalling the Moses story in amazing detail.
Calli for being really thoughtful and kind when her friend was upset.

5HB- Hayden for being so engaged in Wednesday's assembly and putting his hand up to share his ideas the whole time. Daniel for settling in well and having a really positive first week at Springfield. Skalla for putting so much effort into her RE learning this week, her RE book has been a pleasure to look at and she even borrowed a book from the library this week linked to her learning

5M - Emily for her amazing recall of our class book.
Theo for helping his classmates in PE even though he can't take part at the moment.

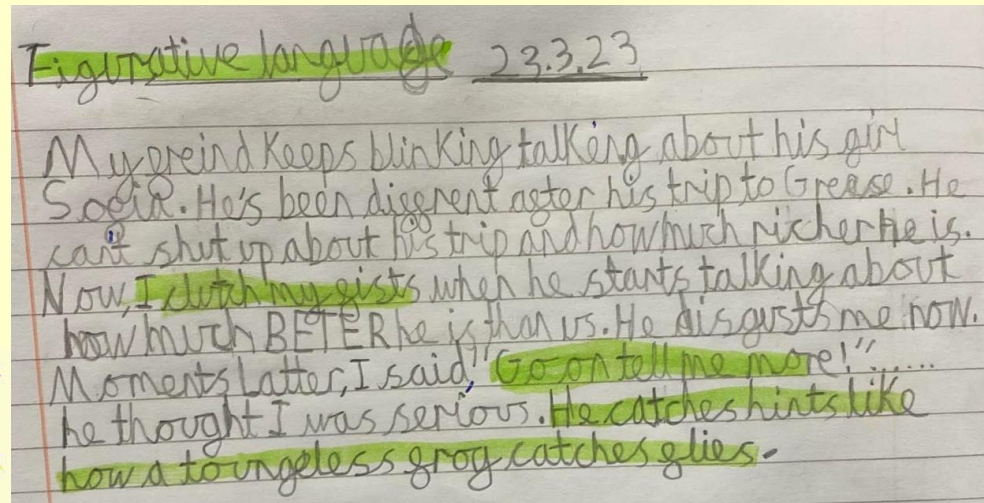

Year 6 are celebrating...

6J Charlie and Nathaniel for their creative writing in literacy

6T Temmy who attends her reading group without fail, completes additional work at home and returns it to check with Miss Cairns every single week. Well done Temmy!

6B Aston for trying extremely hard in his maths assessments this week. Max and Harry for working well together when completing their joint art piece with Mrs Lockwood.

6RL Zuzanna who has really improved her focus and application in both literacy and maths.

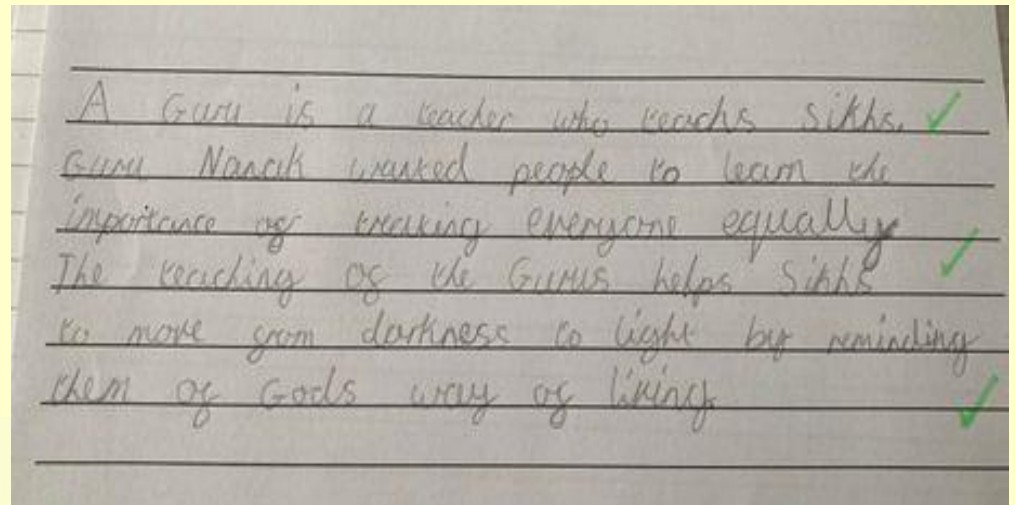

Perfect Presentation!

4H - Dominik for consistently beautifully presented work in all curriculum areas. Nia for trying really hard to slow down which has had an impact on the neatness of her handwriting.

6B - Ada for always presenting her work so neatly in each lesson. Ava for taking more care and time with her handwriting.
