

Celebration Assembly

20th October 2023

Arts and crafts...

We would like to say a massive congratulations to everyone who decorated a jar and/or painted a salt picture, they all look stunning and you have done Mrs Lockwood proud with your artistic skills.

Thank you also for the assistance in tidying up the crafts table, Miss Cairns would have been there all afternoon without you.

Finally, a big thank you to all the students that brought a jar to school!!! Even if you didn't use them, it meant everyone could join in.

Year 3 are celebrating...

3H - Poppy and Kye for working really hard to remember lots of our amazing learning in history. You have really impressed Mrs. Haighton this week.

3A - Franklin and Kiara-Blue have impressed us with their maths skills, whilst completing column addition using equipment. They worked collaboratively to get lots completed.

3P - Ariana for listening really well in History and asking some great questions.

Jack for listening really well to the story at Broomhill library and showing a great understanding of what had been read.

Year 4 are celebrating...

4L - Isla for an amazingly detailed diary entry about our virtual trip to West Stow.

- Georgia for persevering in all lessons and being a helpful member of the class.

- Olivia for working hard in all lessons.

4R - Nataniel and Stephan for their brilliant partnership and performance of their bridge gymnastics sequence.

- Mason for persevering and taking pride in his writing of his diary entry about our virtual trip to West Stow.

4F: - Roxanna for persevering with her learning, and showing an enthusiasm with her maths.

- Josh for participating and answering questions in lessons.

Year 5 are celebrating...

5M - Ocean for showing determination and perseverance when playing the ukulele in Music.

5HB- Mason for challenging himself when including parenthesis in his formal letter. Savannah shows her dedication to her learning by consistently doing her TTRS homework and doing more than what is set each and every week.

5B - Nia and Oliver for smashing their reading targets this term. Dominik for his fantastic contributions and improved concentration in class this week..

Celebrating Reading.

The half term is coming to an end and this is the last day to read and quiz to meet your first reading target of the year. Reading raffle winners will be announced in the first assembly after the holiday. Good luck if you have met your target or you are just about to.

Weekly Celebration 5

This week we are celebrating people who:
Work well with others

PSHE!

Arabella in 6W for being a great friend and always helping Brooke when she needs extra support.

Finley 3P

Cohen 3H supporting other children.

Lily 3A for helping her friend complete the history apply task.

Amy in 4F for helping other children in lessons and by making sure everyone feels included at break and lunch.

Elijah in 5HB for being inclusive when working in partners and making others feel better.

In our thrive sessions this week we have been celebrating positivity. I would like to celebrate Ava Bass this week. Ava has tried really hard with listening to her thrive partner, teamwork and sharing her feelings. She has shown great improvements with all of these things! Mrs Whitmore
